PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Keith Bell is a shareholder with over 15 years of experience in Clark Partington's banking and litigation practice groups. He focuses on commercial, construction, bankruptcy, real estate, title insurance, and probate litigation, as well as governmental affairs and administrative law.

Keith represents national, regional and local financial institutions and title insurance companies as well as individuals and closely held companies in a wide array of litigation and transactional matters. He consistently applies a results-oriented approach to his trial work, transactions, and to governmental affairs that is both aggressive and efficient in order to avoid waste and unnecessary cost.

During his days off, he enjoys biking, fishing, watching football and basketball and playing with his three children.

Keith L. Bell, Jr. is licensed to practice in all Florida State Courts and all Federal District Courts in the State of Florida.
