PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

William H. Clark founded the firm in 1976 with his law school moot court partner, Donald H. Partington, and brothers Robert D. Hart, Jr., and W. Christopher Hart. He graduated from Washington & Lee University in 1960, and also received his law degree from Washington & Lee in 1963.

Prior to his retirement from the active practice of law, Bill maintained a broad based litigation practice, and was highly-regarded for his work in the areas of Media Law and Eminent Domain. He remains a certified mediator. He was president of the Escambia/Santa Rosa Bar Association, and served on the Board of Governors of the Florida Bar from 1984-1990.

Bill is a past president of the Pensacola Area Chamber of Commerce, and served on the boards of numerous civic and charitable institutions in the area, and also taught Media Law as an adjunct professor at the University of West Florida.
