PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Connor Burke focuses his practice in the areas of general civil litigation, business litigation, creditors' rights, and employment law.

Connor earned his Juris Doctor from Stetson University College of Law in St. Petersburg, Florida. During his time in law school, he gained valuable experience as an intern at the Manatee County Public Defender's Office and as a clerk for a construction litigation firm in Clearwater, Florida.

Before pursuing his legal career, Connor served as a Scout Sniper in the United States Marine Corps, completing two deployments with his unit across Europe, East Africa, and the Middle East. After his military service, he earned a Bachelor's degree in Management from the University of Tampa.

Originally from Northern Virginia, Connor now calls Pensacola home. He is married to a Pensacola native, and together they enjoy spending time with their young daughter. In his free time, Connor enjoys fishing, biking, shooting, and music, both playing and recording.

Connor is licensed to practice law in Florida.
