PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Katherine "Yenny" Wu is an attorney in the firm's Pensacola office, where her practice focuses on business and corporate law, and wills, trusts, and estates.

A Pensacola native, Katherine—known to friends and colleagues as Yenny—earned both her undergraduate and master's degrees in public health from Tulane University in New Orleans in 2020. She went on to receive her law degree from Florida State University College of Law, where she clerked with the Florida Department of Health and earned the Book Award for her work in FSU's Children's Advocacy Clinic, which provides pro bono legal services to children facing challenges related to healthcare, disability, and dependency.

Yenny is proud to live and work in her hometown. Outside the office, she enjoys playing pickleball and volleyball, painting, gardening, traveling, and spending time with family and friends.

Katherine Y. Wu is licensed to practice in Florida.
